2019 Website Program Description

Poised at the convergence of science, technology, and consciousness, Starlines II is a blend of physics and metaphysics that builds upon the power of Starlines I. Employing ultra deep Focus level 49, Starlines II strengthens the energetic pathway between earth core and the galactic core, giving you opportunities to explore forms of dimensional shifting.

Starlines II is for you if you are a graduate of Starlines I who desires to optimize your service to humanity, Earth, and your Total Self. In Starlines II you shift into collective states emphasizing integration, connection, and conscious creative expression. This program is so multi-dimensional that it is difficult to summarize, and is often experienced as profoundly personal, even within the context of collective experience.

Explore the Wisdom Paths of Ancient Civilizations that can Assist Us Here and Now.

I AM READY TO EXPLORE!

Explore teachings from cultures where space-time shifting was accepted and used. You will experiment with emerging patterns of awareness. Simultaneously, Starlines II explores contemporary science, especially physics. As energy supplants form, the role of consciousness moves to the forefront, and the inner and the outer become one. Building on these new understandings, we examine perspectives reminding us that we are not only more than our physical bodies—we are more than the physical universe, more than the infinite parallel universes that science hypothesizes.

Many prophecies about our time period refer to unique alignments between our Earth and the galactic core. Bob Monroe wrote about converging energy streams that would be affecting Earth. In Starlines I, participants become aware of the Stargate of the Galactic Core and learn to “surf” the various energetic pathways and flows that are coming into being. In Starlines II, as visions of possible futures emerge, you will use the consciousness states of F-42 (The I-There Clusters) and F-49 to strengthen your energy body, reclaim internal resources, and channel these emerging energies and patterns into new expressions of possible ideal life and culture in the present.

Attune even more deeply to the voice and consciousness of Earth herself. Examine the nature of our symbiotic relationship with Earth.

In Starlines II you will attune even more deeply to the voice and consciousness of Earth herself. You will examine the nature of our symbiotic relationship with Earth, as the womb that may carry our human expressions to a higher vibration. This is your opportunity to experience more deeply than ever your unlimited nature, your infinitely-faceted multidimensional being, and to contribute on a level not previously imagined.
